Cibola Encampment 2015

by Ann Goldberg

Cibola, Arizona. Surrounded by fields recently harvested of cotton and recently planted bright green alfalfa. Wide open skies. Vibrantly colored sunsets punctuated by flocks of loudly honking migrating geese. Huge nighttime skies filled with thousands of stars. The sounds of braying donkeys and a wide variety of animal tracks. Nature at her best. Fascinating old buildings. The broad limbed tamarisk tree that's appeared in generations of Bishop family photos. Tidbits of family history shared. The company of good friends. Lots of good conversation, lots of good food. Meat cooked over a wood fire. This year, absolutely perfect weather. And, host Ava and Bob's extreme hospitality. These are all things that make Cibola weekend a favorite camping trip, one enjoyed this year by Linda and Wayne, Annette and Ron, Harvey and me, with Claudia and Danny joining us for Saturday supper.

Besides the wide open spaces, for added entertainment there are trips into Quartzite where the year-round population barely tops 3,600. Come season, RV'ers flock to neighboring BLM land, the population explodes, and, vendors bring antiques, collectibles, old stuff and new stuff to Quartzite's numerous swap meets. Look long enough and you'll find just about anything you could possibly be looking for, and lots more.

As usual, we found treasures, as well as practical everyday items, as we roamed the swap meet booths. Notable finds included a replacement wedding band for Bob, similar to the one he had to have cut from his finger almost 20 years ago; boots; a McCoy candy dish; vintage oil can; a geode waiting to be cracked; a small cast iron mermaid; RV supplies; kitchen gadgets; an old Delco distributor cap; coin proof sets in the birth years of grandsons, a Bell system wire splitter. And, the list goes on. Finds as varied as our interests.

I'm already looking forward to next January, and our next Cibola weekend. Thank you again Ava and Bob for showing us all such a wonderful time!

New Years Day

Cruise + 3

by Mike Harvey

What a great day to start the New Year, just a little late, but a great call by Bob Brown saved us all from a very chilly day on the bay. As a result we had a perfect day with great weather and a full boat. Twenty five people showed up for the Swift Boat Cruise (the boats capacity), a group from the North County met at North County Fair and met the rest of the group at the Maritime Museum on Harbor Drive. We paid our fees (which was less than we thought, thanks again Bob), and boarded the Museum. We had about 30 min+ to tour the great exhibits and the beautiful views, along with the facilities provided.

After a training class in boat safety, we proceeded to board the boat and got underway. Throughout the trip Dave Bradley, a Vietnam Swift Boat Veteran, served as our tour guide. He shared with us his expertise on the workings of the boat, as well as his extensive knowledge of San Diego Bay. Everyone was able to get lots of great photos of the boat and the amazing skyline that the bay side view of San Diego provides. Back at the dock we said our good byes and thank yous to the crew of the boat. The last to leave the boat were those in our group who had served in the Vietnam War, Harvey Goldberg, Bob Brown, Sam Rindskopf, Sandy Mayer, and Wayne Hartwig, who were given special thanks for their service by the crew of the boat.

The day was done after a fine meal at the Filippi's in Kearny Mesa, in our own room saved for very special people.

*Special thanks to Bob Brown for setting up this tour and also for his part in the restoration of the Swift Boat. Go to <http://www.tri-fiverevolution.com/calendar/2015/January/04> to see more pictures from this event.

Claudia's Corner

It was so great to see some of the gang in Cibola during our trip to Quartzsite this year. Sometimes we are out of touch with the happenings of the club but once we get together again, all the good times are revisited and its like we've never been away. Ava & Bob are such gracious hosts and always welcome everyone with great food and good friends. Danny & I always look forward to the January gathering in the desert. During this visit I was asked for a few recipes for items that I brought on Saturday night so here goes...

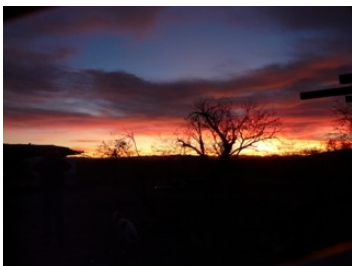

MEXICAN SUSHI APPETIZERS

6 – 8 10" Flour Tortillas
12 oz. cream cheese softened
1 sm. Can diced green chilies
1 small can chopped olives
¼ cup diced green onions
3 to 4 Tbsp. chopped pecans

Combine softened cream cheese with the rest of the ingredients. Then spread thinly and evenly onto each tortilla. Roll and lightly flatten. Refrigerate for 3 – 4 hours or overnight. Bring out and cut into pinwheel slices (I like them to be about ¾" thick but you can vary according to your preference). Can be served with salsa.

EASY SLAW

1 bag of shredded cabbage slaw
½ cup raisins (dried cranberries)
Marie's slaw dressing – ½ - ¾ cup depending on preference
Pepper to taste

Big Thank you to all Tri-Five Revolutionaires who came to the Bishop Cibola Ranch for the fun Swapmeet/Bar-B-Que weekend. We had a great time and hope you did too.

Kitchen Scoop on Chicken

Two Easy Recipes from Ann Goldberg

Absolutely without a single idea for this month's column I flipped through my recipe box looking for something I thought you'd enjoy trying. Success! Here are two very easy, and delicious, chicken recipes that were family favorites for years. Chicken Divan is quick to prepare. Made with cooked chicken its just as perfect made with leftover chicken or for turning that cooked bird you just brought home from the market into a delectable casserole.

Baked Chicken al la Russe

Serves 8-10

NOTE: The chicken must marinate overnight. Then, day of baking, must be refrigerator-ated for 1-1/2 hours before baking.

5 whole chicken breasts, skinned, boned and cut into half
1 cup sour cream
1 Tablespoon worcestershire sauce
1/2 teaspoon red pepper sauce
1 medium clove garlic, crushed
1 teaspoon salt
1-1/4 teaspoon paprika
1 cup fine, dry bread crumbs

Wipe chicken dry on both sides with paper toweling. Combine sour cream, worcestershire sauce, pepper sauce, garlic, salt and paprika. Mix well. Place chicken in a zip-lock plastic bag, pour sour cream mixture over chicken.

Marinate overnight, turning bag occasionally to assure all of chicken is well covered with sauce.

Dip each piece of chicken into crumbs to generously coat on all sides. Leave as much marinade on chicken before dipping into the crumbs as possible. Shape chicken pieces into compact bundles (without folding them).

Place chicken in a single layer in an ungreased baking dish. Cover.

Refrigerate about 1-1/2 hours.

Preheat oven to 325 degrees.

Place chicken in oven directly from refrigerator.

Bake, uncovered, 1 hour 15 minutes or until done.

Serve with rice to which you've added chopped onions and water chestnuts.

Chicken Divan

Serves 6-8

2 10-ounce packages frozen chopped broccoli
2 cups cubed cooked chicken
2 cans cream of chicken soup
1 cup mayo
1 teaspoon lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon curry powder
1/2 cup shredded sharp cheddar cheese
1/2 cup soft bread crumbs
2 Tablespoons melted butter

Cook broccoli, drain, spoon into the bottom of a greased casserole. Top with cubed cooked chicken. Combine soup, mayo, lemon juice and curry powder. Pour over chicken. Sprinkle with cheese. Combine crumbs and butter. Sprinkle over all. Bake for 25-30 minutes at 350 degrees.

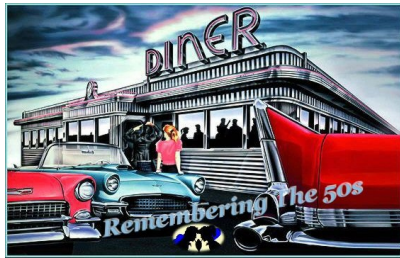

Even though Chicken a la Russe must be started the day before it's served and the recipe has several steps, it too is easy to prepare — and equally tasty.
