Cruisin' in the New Year

Thank you to Bob Brown for the New Years Cruise Pics

New Year's Day Cruise 2022

Submitted by Mike Harvey

Once again, we were blessed with a perfect day for a cruise through the countryside. Having said that, I hope the next January 1 isn't cold and rainy. We had 8 cars on our trip thru Rancho Bernardo, 4S Ranch, Fairbanks Ranch, Rancho Santa Fe, Olivenhain, a small corner of Carlsbad, San Marcos, and Vista. Along with Pat and I, were the Kellers, Hartwigs, Geimans, Dana Stevens, Bob Brown, Gary and Linda Jensen, Dave and Marge Vincent, with the Heckmans having to cancel because of car trouble (Rick drives a Ford).

Before we started I asked Dana to be the last one in the line, to make it easier for me to see the end of the line. Once we got started, I realized I had forgotten that Dana was by herself and may have a problem following the route. Thanks to Bob Brown, the gentleman he is, he laid back and made sure Dana was able to keep up. All was well the rest of the way. We stopped for a pit stop at San Dieguito Park where a Park Ranger stopped by looking to collect the fee to use the park. As soon as he got close enough to see all of us, he said never mind, it looks like we were all over 65 there is no charge (Dana must have been out of sight). We took some pictures of the group and got back on the road.

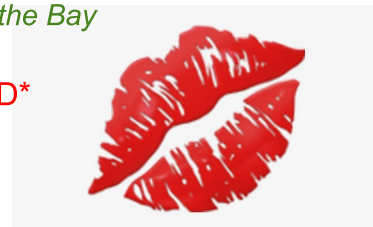

I made one change to the route, when were at the park, we were a little ahead of schedule, so I took us by the house where I grew up and then on one of the windiest roads in Vista- Phillips St.

took us back (after lots of curves) to Mamas and Pappas. Lunch was great as usual. A special thanks to Joe and Donna for their help, pre-running the route with us. We are looking forward to the next year, hoping we have more opportunities to go cruising.

Do you remember that word?
Would you believe the email spell checker
did not recognize the word Murgatroyd?

Heavens to Murgatroyd!

Lost Words from our childhood: Words gone as fast as the buggy whip! Sad really!

The other day a not so elderly (65) (I say 75) lady said something to her son about driving a Jalopy and he looked at her quizzically and said, "What the heck is a Jalopy?"

O.M.G. (new phrase)! He never heard of the word jalopy!! She knew she was old.... but not that old... Well, I hope you are Hunky Dory after you read this and chuckle.

About a month ago, I illuminated some old expressions that have become obsolete because of the inexorable march of technology. These phrases included "Don't touch that dial," "Carbon copy," "You sound like a broken record" and "Hung out to dry."

Back in the olden days we had a lot of 'moxie.' We'd put on our best 'bib and tucker' to 'straighten up and fly right'.

Heavens to Betsy! Gee whilikers! Jumping Jehoshaphat! Holy moley!

We were in like Flynn' and "living the life of Riley", and even a regular guy couldn't accuse us of being a knucklehead, a nincompoop or a pill. Not for all the tea in China!

Back in the olden days, life used to be swell, but when's the last time anything was swell?

Swell has gone the way of beehives, pageboys and the D.A.; of spats, knickers, fedoras, poodle skirts, saddle shoes and pedal pushers..AND DON'T FORGET... Saddle Stitched Pants

Oh, my aching back! Kilroy was here, but he isn't anymore.

We wake up from what surely has been just a short nap, and before we can say, well, I'll be 'A monkey's uncle!'

Or this is a 'fine kettle of fish'! We discover that the words we grew up with, the words that seemed omnipresent, as oxygen, have vanished with scarcely a notice from our tongues and our pens and our keyboards.

Poof, go the words of our youth, the words we've left behind

We blink, and they're gone.

Where have all those great phrases gone? (My Favorite) "Let's all go to the beach Saturday"...

Long gone: Pshaw, the milkman did it. Hey! It's your nickel. Don't forget to pull the chain. Knee high to a grasshopper. Well, Fiddlesticks! Going like sixty. I'll see you in the funny papers. Don't take any wooden nickels.

Wake up and smell the roses.

It turns out there are more of these lost words and expressions than Carter has liver pills. This can be disturbing stuff! ("Carter's Little Liver Pills" are gone too!)

We of a certain age have been blessed to live in changeable times. For a child each new word is like a shiny toy, a toy that has no age. We at the other end of the chronological arc have the advantage of remembering there are words that once did not exist and there were words that once strutted their hour upon the earthly stage and now are heard no more, except in our collective memory.

It's one of the greatest advantages of aging.

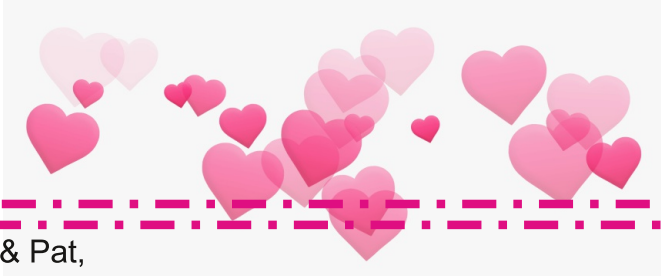

Leaves us to wonder where Superman will find a phone booth...

See Ya later, alligator!

Okey-dokey

Congratulations Wayne Hartwig First Place Award winner Custom Convertible at the Grand Nationals Roadster Show. It was held at the Fairplex in Pomona January 28th through the 30th. Looking forward to more pics and a detailed article of the event in the T5R March issue.

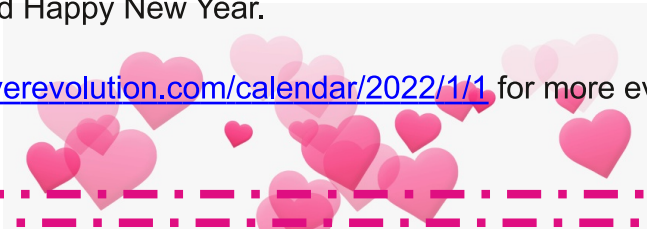

Mike & Pat,

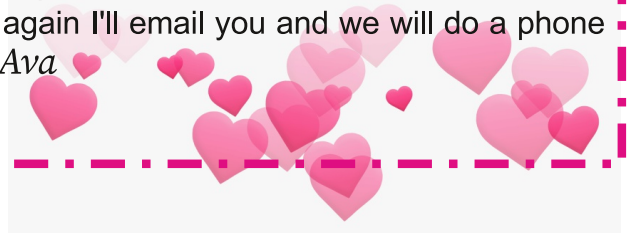

Thank you for organizing and leading a great run on New Year's Day. The weather was perfect, the route was interesting and included some roads I hadn't seen before. You done good (as they say). Thanks again, and Happy New Year.

As most of you know we had a little snafu at the club meeting this month. Thanks to Wayne and Linda for coming up with a last minute alternative. We were not able to have a meeting, just being together and enjoying each other's company with pizza was fun too. Joe went and talked to the Hamburger Factory to see what had happened. As suspected they did not have a contact number for us and apologized for the inconvenience. They now have Joe's number if another problem arises. Next month we will be back at the Hamburger Factory, if something comes up again I'll email you and we will do a phone tree. Big thank you to Joe for taking care of this for us. Ava

Stylish Wagons by Chevrolet!

More and more people are joining the Station-Wagon set—and no wonder, with this spanking quintet of Motoramic Chevrolet wagons to choose from! Beautifully styled inside and out and with space to spare . . . from

Claudia's Corner

February is here and its still cool in Arizona. Maybe in San Diego, too.
So I have a few recipes that might just take the chill off. Happy Valentine's Day to everyone!

Sausage Barley Soup

1 package spicy Italian sausage sautéed in a small amount of olive oil

When sausage starts to brown but is not fully cooked, add the following ingredients in this order:

1 large spanish onion diced
6 large garlic cloves minced
saute for about 15 minutes on low
3 large fresh carrots diced
4 stalks celery cleaned of leaves and diced
1 Tbsp. Old Bay seasoning
Saute for 20 minutes on medium to brown the veggies

Add: 4-6 diced med red potatoes & sauté for a few more minutes

Add: 1 28 oz canned diced tomatoes
1 cup of barley
Add beef or chicken broth to cover mixture by about 3 inches of liquid
Simmer for about 2 1/2 hours and serve

SOUTHWEST WHITE CHILI

1 Tbsp olive oil
1 ½ lb boneless, skinless chicken breast cut into small cubes
½ cup chopped onion
1 cup chicken broth
1 (4oz) can chopped green chilies
1 (19oz) can white kidney beans, undrained
2 green onions, sliced
1 tsp garlic powder
1 tsp ground cumin
½ tsp oregano leaves
½ tsp cilantro leaves
1/8 tsp ground red pepper

Heat oil in large saucepan over med-high heat. Add chicken and onions; cook 4 – 5 minutes.

Stir in broth, green chilies & spices; simmer about 15 minutes

Stir in beans. Simmer 5 min. Top with onions. Garnish with Monterey Jack cheese if desired. Makes 4 cups.

PORTUGUESE SOUP

3 cans chicken stock or canned broth
1 lb smoked kielbasa sausage, diced
1 lb boiling potatoes, peeled & diced
1 (15 1/4oz) can kidney beans, drained
1 (14 1/2oz) can diced tomatoes
½ medium head cabbage, coarsely chopped
1 med onion, chopped
1 large carrot, diced
½ green bell pepper, diced
3 garlic cloves, minced

Combine all ingredients in a large pot. Bring to a boil, stirring occasionally. Reduce heat; simmer until thick, stirring occasionally, about 2 hours. Season with pepper.

OK to use crock pot.
