Cruising in the New Year

What a great day for a cruise! The weather was fabulous, the drive was relaxing, the scenery was beautiful and of course the company just doesn't get any better than our small group of Revolutionaries. Thank you to Nancy and Annette for taking the reins on this cruise. We had two starting points, but we all eventually met up at Route 79 and S2. After lots of hugs and Happy New Years we were on our way through Warner Springs by the expert caravan leadership of Tom Geiman. The ride was the way it should be, leisurely and relaxing. After our jaunt we ended up at Wilson Creek Winery in Temecula for photo opts and a yummy lunch (some even had wine with that). We then did a little shopping in the gift shop and took that opportunity to photograph our classics. Some of us headed home while others continued on for more vineyard cruising and a little more wine tasting. All in all what great way to start 2009.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Red font - Club events

~ 'I'll tell you one thing, if things keep going the way they are, it's going to be impossible to buy a week's groceries for $20.00.

~ 'Have you seen the new cars coming out next year? It won't be long before $2, 000.00 will only buy a used one.

~ 'If cigarettes keep going up in price, I'm going to quit. A quarter a pack is ridiculous.

~ 'Did you hear the post office is thinking about charging a dime just to mail a letter?

~ 'If they raise the minimum wage to $1.00, nobody will be able to hire outside help at the store.

~ 'When I first started driving, who would have thought gas would someday cost 29 cents a gallon. Guess we'd be better off leaving the car in the garage.

~ 'I'm afraid to send my kids to the movies any more. Ever since they let Clark Gable get by with saying DAMN in GONE WITH THE WIND, it seems every new movie has either HELL or DAMN in it.

~ I read the other day where some scientist thinks it's possible to put a man on the moon by the end of the century. They even have some fellows they call astronauts preparing for it down in Texas .

~ 'Did you see where some baseball player just signed a contract for $75,000 a year just to play ball? It wouldn't surprise me if someday they'll be making more than the President.

~ 'I never thought I'd see the day all our kitchen appliances would be electric. They are even making electric typewriters now.

~ 'It's too bad things are so tough nowadays. I see where a few married women are having to work to make ends meet.

~ 'It won't be long before young couples are going to have to hire someone to watch their kids so they can both work.

~ 'I'm afraid the Volkswagen car is going to open the door to a whole lot of foreign business.

~ 'Thank goodness I won't live to see the day when the Government takes half our income in taxes. I sometimes wonder if we are electing the best people to congress.

~ 'The drive-in restaurant is convenient in nice weather, but I seriously doubt they will ever catch on.

~ 'There is no sense going to Lincoln or Omaha anymore for a weekend, it costs nearly $15.00 a night to stay in a hotel.

~ 'No one can afford to be sick anymore, at $35.00 a day in the hospital it's too rich for my blood.'

~ 'If they think I'll pay 50 cents for a hair cut, forget it.'

I dialed a number and got the following recording:

*'I am not available right now, but
Thank you for caring enough to call.
I am making some changes in my life.
Please leave a message after the Beep.
If I do not return your call,
You are one of the changes.'*

The quote of the month is by Jay Leno:

*'With hurricanes, tornados, fires out of control, mud
