TRI-FIVE
REVOLUTION

January 2011

Volume III Issue 5

Tri-Five Revolution
brings in the New Year together!

I love the holidays as much as the next person -- but after the annual six weeks of preparation and celebration, it's nice to have a "play day". A day to indulge guilt and deadline-free in a favorite pastime. That's exactly what New Year's Day has become for our group of Revolutionaries -- a cruise day with friends. And, along the way we see others doing what they like best with their buddies -- hikers hiking, bikers biking and motorcyclists motorcycling.

Three years ago Nancy (Geiman) and Annette (Foote) planned our initial start-of-the-new year holiday event, a country drive culminating with lunch at Temecula's Wilson Creek Winery followed by wine tasting. Last year after Ava filled us with late morning hearty hors d'oeuvres, Bob (Bishop) led us through the San Diego County back country and areas few of us frequently traverse before returning to Bongiovanni's Restaurant for a late lunch of Italian favorites. This year, we asked Bob for another backcountry excursion. He didn't disappoint.

We gathered at the Bishops' Saturday morning, and again our day started deliciously with Ava filling us with yummy food-for-the-road. Then our group of sixteen (Ava and Bob, Liz and Bob Brown, Donna and Sam Rindskopf, Annette and Ron Foote, Nancy and Tom Geiman, Ann and Harvey Goldberg, Pat and Mike Harvey, Linda and Wayne Hartwig) traveling in six classics and two street cars, was off for a close to 100-mile and nearly three hour adventure that took us along Old Highway 80 through Johnstown, Flinn Springs, Alpine, Viejas Indian Reservation and to our first stop the I-8 eastbound View Point, a good place to stretch our legs and take pictures of the cars and our group.

Then it was by way of Descanso, Guatay and a second stop, this one at Pine Valley Park where we enjoyed the comforts of home -- restrooms. Back in the cars headed to Lake Morena where we were invited to leave by a dutiful Park Ranger for not paying the prescribed parking fee when we stopped to take a look at the lake. Luckily this was a close as we came to leading a life of crime during the day.

At Cameron Corners a hand written sign touting the January 4 Mega Millions Lottery drawing then anticipated at $290 Million led Donna and I to buy lottery tickets during our gas and refreshment stop. (The philosophy that someone has to win paid off, just not to us. Neither of the two big drawing winners purchased their tickets in California.) The final leg of our cruise took us through the Campo Indian Reservation, past Golden Acorn Casino and back up Interstate 8 to Flinn Springs and Bongiovanni's Restaurant and a welcome Italian lunch. To cap off our perfect day there was a beautiful sunset to accompany us home after we'd said our good byes.

January 1st - New Years Day Fun Run

By Bob Brown

Lots of good grits to eat at Bob & Ava's before we start the run

A little pre-run maintenance. Ok, this begs the question, "How many Tri 5's does it take to change a tail light bulb?"

Beautiful, crisp day for a drive. We had 5 Tri 5's, a Vette, and two OTBCs (other than box cars)

Watch out, Ava has her camera..

Hands off the bra Harv, hands off the bra..

Tom tries to get Sam to fall for the old "look up there" trick.

Does this make our butts look big?

T5R Group shot

Harv's got that "where the hell are we" look.
We're in a little park in Pine Valley.

Oops, another butt shot.

East on old Highway 80.

Harv & Ann just ahead. Now "back in the day",
Ann would be snuggled right up to Harvey's shoulder. Modern seat belts screw up everything

Parked at Lake Morena. Taken just before we got thrown out by the park ranger. Bah humbug!

Neat old railroad trestle. Heading for lunch at Bongiovanni's Italian Restaurant near Flinn Springs.

*Happy
New

Tri-Five Revolution Christmas Celebration

December 19th on a very rainy but festive evening, Tri-Five Revolutionaries met at the beautiful home of Sam and Donna Rindskopf for a Christmas celebration. Its always fun to get together, but even more so on the holidays. We started with hugs, loves and Christmas greetings, then onto Sams fabulous, world famous Bar-b-qued Tri-Tip dinner. Of course their is nothing more fun than our cut throat holiday gift exchange (to many great prizes to pass up.) Thank you Sam and Donna for a wonderful evening.

Sam and I wanted to thank everyone for joining us in celebrating the holidays at our house. I appreciated the canned goods for the Ramona Food Bank and the toys for the toy drive that you all brought. I took the food to the Ramona Food Bank Monday. They asked what the name of our group was and they were very appreciative. I had Sam take the toys to Tonya at Courtesy Chevrolet and she took a picture of him giving the toys for Toys For Tots. He was wearing the Tri-Five jacket.

I also wanted to thank Ava and Bob for a great New Years Day start. The snacks were good (thanks for the special quiches) and the cruise was fun. I got to see places that I didn't know were there and Bob telling me about finding the special shoes while he is working was interesting. Hey, I think he could make some extra money selling them at the border.

Thanks for the great company of friends.

Have a Tail Waggin Day! Donna S Rindskopf

Thanks to Donna and Sam for again hosting our Revolutionary Christmas celebration. Our get together was an afternoon of good friends, good food and lots of fun -- and we even managed a good deed or two with our mini toy and food drives.

And, thanks also to Ava and Bob - our unofficial group Santas.

Ava again gifted each Revolutionary family with a photo calendar highlighting the good times of the previous twelve months, while Bob shared a great swap meet find with each of our guys, a fuse puller and installer! Here's to a great 2011!

Mike's Musings

Hi everyone,

This is just a note to remind everyone about the different nature of the meeting this month. I thought this would be a good time for us to sit around and just talk (being the New Year and all). I've asked Ava to include the info that was previously provided to you about the subjects that you should consider then thinking about what you might want to add you two cents about. I'm not sure that sentence makes sense, but you get the idea. Please, take a little time before the meeting and give some thought to where we are at now and where we want to be in a year from now. Nothing heavy, we're all too old for the really heavy lifting. See you there!

Be safe,

Mike Harvey

Mikes Musings December 2010 edition

It was a cold wet winter, the sun hadn't been out in weeks, but on January 23rd 2011 at 10:00 AM for some reason, unbeknownst to modern man (or women), the skies parted, out popped the sun - low and behold there it was out in the distance, .....what is that? Is that possible, no it can't be, no I think it is, no way, not here, not now? I need a better look, I should get closer, do I dare, will I scare them away, will they run and hide, will they stay, are they friendly, are they mad (not mad like angry), they shouldn't be here, maybe they know something I don't, (not much chance of that), but then stranger things have happened (not lately). I'm going for it!!!!

There they were, the Tri-Five Revolutionaries, sitting around the table at the Apple Country Inn in Santa Ysabel having breakfast and just chatting, enjoying each other's company, what a nice picture, can you imagine it, can you make it happen, YOU BET.

No agenda, no minutes, just some casual chatter (maybe later some serious thought).

PLEASE BRING!

Your: Rides, Recliners

Think About: (these are in no particular order)

(don't work up a sweat over these) (Just let this flow, don't force it, it will come to you) (I trust you) (Who am I kidding?)

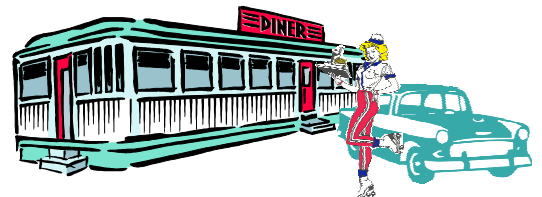

Review, Reflection, Resolution (it's the New Year),

Reason (s), Remember, Resolve, Rejoice, Revelations

Reminisces, Rhymes and Riddles (who doesn't like a good riddle)

HAPPY New Year,

Mike and Pat

ZEN TEACHINGS FOR THE NEW YEAR

1. Do not walk behind me, for I may not lead. Do not walk ahead of me, for I may not follow. Do not walk beside me for the path is narrow.. In fact, just piss off and leave me alone.
2. Sex is like air. It's not that important unless you aren't getting any.
3. No one is listening until you fart.
4. Always remember you're unique. Just like everyone else.
5. Never test the depth of the water with both feet.
6. If you think nobody cares whether you're alive or dead, try missing a couple of mortgage payments.
7. Before you criticize someone, you should walk a mile in their shoes. That way, when you criticize them, you're a mile away and you have their shoes.
8. If at first you don't succeed, skydiving is not for you.
9. Give a man a fish and he will eat for a day. Teach him how to fish, and he will sit in a boat and drink beer all day.
10. If you lend someone £20 and never see that person again, it was probably well worth it
11. If you tell the truth, you don't have to remember anything.
12. Some days you are the dog, some days you are the tree.
13. Don't worry; it only seems kinky the first time.
14. Good judgment comes from bad experience ... and most of that comes from bad judgment.
15. A closed mouth gathers no foot.
16. There are two excellent theories for arguing with women.
Neither one works.
17. Generally speaking, you aren't learning much when your lips are moving.
18. Experience is something you don't get until just after you need it.
19. We are born naked, wet and hungry, and get slapped on our arse ... then things just keep getting worse.
20. Never, under any circumstance, take a sleeping pill and a laxative on the same night.
