New Years Day Cruise

Another Tri-Five Revolution New Years Day Cruise, and what an absolutely fabulous one it was too. We had a large group with 18 members, 1 friend, 6 classics, 1 late great, a corvette leading the pack and a chase truck bringing up the rear, we were ready to cruise. The day couldn't have been more perfect with lots of sun and not too cold, our lead car even went topless. We visited some really fun site seeing stops and ended the day for lunch at Lake Henshaw. It was a little nippy there, alright it was just down right cold which when you don't have a heater can be a little problematic. Fortunately I had the foresite to bring a blanket with me. A big thank you to Sam and Donna for pulling this together, it was a really great way to start the New Year.

Heading home, what a great day!

Cruisin' with Stanley on New Year's Day

We arrived a few minutes late as Rod waited til the last minute to get gas. I guess he likes it fresh. We met at the shopping center by Lake Hodges, already there were: Ava and Bob, Wayne and Linda, Sam and Donna, Bob and Liz, Sandy and Lynn, Ron and Annette, Ann and Harvey, and Nancy and Tom. Whew! — Counting my guardians Rod and Nancy, that's a lot of family. I notice one car was different. It was rounder, lower, and had no fins. I had my picture taken on it and made it look much better! We drove north, stopping at Lake Wohlford. It was very pretty there. Everyone posed by their spouses and cars. What a great looking group. We wound around Valley Center, up 395 and 76 to the Pala Mission. It was old.

We then drove to Lake Henshaw and ate at the café there. No one ate chicken at our table which was a relief. Bob took a picture of me with a bottle of mustard—why? We all said goodbye and drove home. A great start to the New Year.

Happy New Year!

Later, Stanley

Welcome new perspective Tri-Five Revolution members Dave Ward and Judy. We have a lengthy probation period with lots of hazing, but we are pretty confident they will pass the test.

Spirited Gift Exchange

Jingles the Timbers of Rindskopf Ranch

During the T&R Christmas Party

Filled with holiday spirit, bearing gift exchange surprises and tasty pot luck offerings, our merry band of revolutionaries converged on Rindskopf Ranch in Ramona December 9th for our annual Christmas party. Bundled in the holiday sweaters and medium weight jackets of Southern California early winter we placed bow topped boxes and gift bags under the tree; casseroles, salad bowls and the like on the kitchen island, and hunkered in to enjoy Donna and Sam's beautifully decorated home and warm hospitality. Many thanks to you both for hosting!

It was an enjoyable afternoon of friendly conversation and demonstrations of animated snowmen and other treasured collectibles-of-the-season, the stuff that brings back the child in every one of us. While most of us kept cozy noshing on appetizers, the heartier gathered around the outdoor kitchen to keep Sam company as he once again demonstrated his considerable skills at the grill, producing delicious tri-tip and salmon for our dinner buffet.

After we'd all wiped dessert crumbs from our chins, folded our napkins and pushed away from the table it was time for the obligatory annual "family" picture in front of the Christmas tree. A last quite moment of peace before our gift exchange. Traditionalists by nature, we follow the tried-and-true pick a gift, trade two times and then the gift is "frozen" rules. However, this year it became clear some of us have better honed horse trading skills than others as more than one couple was able to team their efforts to snag a desired gift.

Once the dust settled and it was decided we would continue our tradition of a New Year's Day cruise, Sam volunteering to lead the way, we wished each other a Merry Christmas and headed out into the evening and the holiday fray.

the "PTSNBM"

The first step was to support the lower control arm with a floor jack and remove the upper a arm.

The next step was to install the new tubular arm. The arms came with urethane bushings and screw-in ball joints installed.

The new arms installed easily and fit perfectly.

The final step was front end alignment with a spindle mount camber/caster gauge. With the proper alignment the car now steers great.

Claudia's Corner

Here are a few great soup recipes for those cold winter days. I love making soup for dinner especially using these easy recipes. I hope you enjoy them as much as we do. Claudia

Sausage Barley Soup

1 package spicy Italian sausage sautéed in a small amount of olive oil

When sausage starts to brown but is not fully cooked, add the following ingredients in this order:

1 large spanish onion diced

6 large garlic cloves minced

sauté for about 15 minutes on low

3 large fresh carrots diced

4 stalks celery cleaned of leaves and diced

1 Tbsp. Old Bay seasoning

Sauté for 20 minutes on medium to brown the veggies

Add: 4-6 diced med red potatoes & sauté for a few more minutes

Add: 1 28 oz canned diced tomatoes

1 cup of barley

Add beef or chicken broth to cover mixture by about 3 inches of liquid

Simmer for about 2 1/2 hours and serve

Hoppin John Soup

(Original recipe makes 8 servings)

1 pound sage pork sausage

1 (6 ounce) package uncooked long grain and wild rice mix, with seasoning packet

2 (15 ounce) cans black-eyed peas, drained

2 (14.5 ounce) cans diced tomatoes, with liquid

2 (14 ounce) cans chicken broth

2 cups water

Salt to taste

Stuffed Pepper Soup

1 bottle V8 Spicy Hot

1 bottle V8 Low Sodium

2 lbs. ground chuck

3-4 Medium Bell peppers (red) diced

1 small/medium onion diced

2 Cups of Rice- brown or white your preference

1/2 Cup Brown Sugar

Combine peppers and onion with ground chuck and cook until the ground chuck is browned.

Put pepper mixture in crock pot

Add both bottles of V8 or half of each depending on size of crock.

Add the Brown Sugar

Add Rice then Simmer on low for 2 hours or until rice is soft.

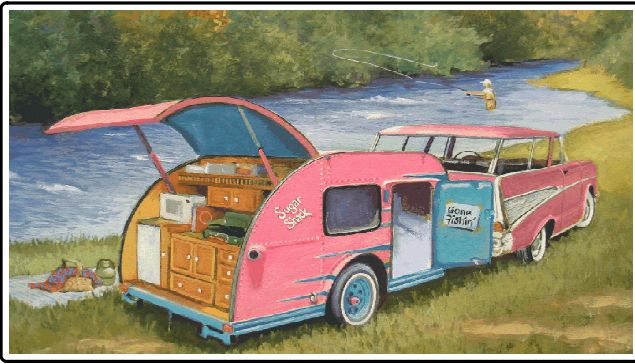

Salt or pepper if needed.

Note: Minute Rice works fine as long as you are not letting it simmer for several hours. If so use regular rice or the minute rice will turn into little pillows in your soup :-)

Directions

1. Crumble sausage into a skillet over medium heat and cook until evenly brown.
2. In a large pot, mix the cooked sausage, rice mix with seasoning packet, black-eyed peas, tomatoes, broth and water. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat to low, cover and simmer 20 minutes, or until rice is tender. Season to taste with salt.

Hints on Cleaning The Kitchen Scoop

from Ann Goldberg

Back when our tri-5's were new, and commercially available cleaning products were fewer and Spic 'n Span, Ajax and other names from the past were on the grocers' shelves, more old-fashioned homemakers like my grandmother Mim got tried and true results with using pantry items like baking soda and white vinegar. Mim, with her tight white curls hair-pinned in place and wearing a housedress (covered by an apron for messy jobs, of course) and her lace-up medium heeled shoes, could make any pane of glass shine with water liberally doused with white vinegar applied with a rag and polished off with waded up newspaper and some elbow grease. (Wouldn't it be ironic if the answer wasn't really the white vinegar and newspaper but the elbow grease?)

The current "wonder product" comes not from the pantry but from under the kitchen sink if the Pinterest crowd is in the know. Apparently the blue colored version of Dawn Dish Washing Liquid is pretty nifty stuff, too.

As a bathroom or kitchen sink cleaner

Clean shower and sink/vanity areas without leaving a telltale chemical smell by using a mixture of equal parts blue Dawn and white vinegar. Pour the two ingredients directly into the handle of a dish wand for easy, and effective, scrubbing. (Add the Dawn followed by the vinegar; vinegar poured in first will immediately drip out of the wand cleaning pad.)

As an ice pack

Partially fill a heavy-duty zip-type sandwich bag with blue Dawn dishwashing liquid, securely close and freeze. The liquid soap stays cold much longer than water and the bag will conform more easily to the place you need the ice pack. The bag may be refrozen and reused many times.

As an emergency pet shampoo

Camping or off in the RV and the dog needs an emergency bath? Blue Dawn is gentle on your pet's skin and fur, plus it will kill fleas on contact.

As a pest repellent

Spray counter tops, cupboards and any other surface where ants are visible with a solution of blue Dawn and water. Wipe dry. While the slight remaining Dawn residue isn't a problem for children or pets, ants hate it. Should any be foolish enough to breach the barrier, go ahead hit them directly with the Dawn spray.
