2016 T5R New Years Day Cruise

Mike & Pat,

Just wanted to thank you guys for putting together a great New Year day cruise and wonderful lunch. You must have special contacts upstairs with the perfect weather conditions yesterday. We saw parts of San Diego county that we have not seen before. Great Job!

Happy New Year,
Joe & Donna Keller

Well said Joe. Very nice way to start the New Years! Thank you Mike & Pat.

Take Care and Have A Tail Waggin Day! Donna Rindskopf

Thanks for all the kind words, but we had help on this one from Rod and Nancy. Our fellow H's handled all the arrangements at Janet's in Alpine. I never thought it would be that busy on a Holiday. Thanks to them for doing such a great job. Mike and Pat

Christmas in the Country

by Ann Goldberg

Tri-5 Revolutionaries and friends celebrated Christmas in the country again this year. Twenty-four happy revelers gathered at the Bishop's Rough Edges Ranch for an afternoon of fun, food, friendship, our first-ever Christmas sweater contest, and, our annual gift exchange.

Entering Ava and Bob's front door we were met with a welcoming fire in the fireplace and the wonderful aromas of baked turkey and ham. We spread out our pot luck offerings and soon plates were piled high with a variety of yummy appetizers, hearty sandwiches, delicious salads, sides and topped off with a selection of sweet desserts.

Many members came ready to compete in the Christmas sweater contest wearing holiday shirts, vests and sweaters decorated with snowmen, candy canes, Santas, reindeer, elves, Christmas trees, bears, gingerbread men, snow-flakes and other symbols of the season. To prolong the fun, voting was by secret ballot. The victor: Rich Correia, proclaimed Christmas 2015 winner!

The gift exchange is always the highlight of our holiday gathering. We're known for spirited, good natured gift stealing and skillful teamwork by couples to assure the capture of a chosen treasure. This year's exchange took a bit of time to gain the momentum we all enjoy but certainly didn't disappoint in the end.

Gift wrappings picked up, we gathered on the back porch for a group holiday photo. Not yet ready for goodbyes, many of us hiked up the hill to see the great progress being made on the completion of the "bunkhouse" before Merry Christmas wishes and parting hugs.

Thank you Ava and Bob for another great holiday party!

The Kitchen Scoop on Comfort Food Soup

by Ann Goldberg

As a child, homemade soup was a once-a-winter treat, enjoyed when my father made up a large batch of hamburger soup in my mother's cast iron roasting pan. In my kitchen I make soup quite frequently, especially when the weather's cold, wet and nasty — vegetable barley in the crockpot, or stovetop cream soups when I have fresh vegetables I need to use. Cream of broccoli and cream of carrot are both favorites in our house.

If you want to try something a bit out of the ordinary, here's a recipe for Green Minestrone I think you'll enjoy. The recipe calls for chicken stock; feel free to substitute vegetable stock if you prefer, your soup will be just as delicious.

Green Minestrone

Makes 4 servings

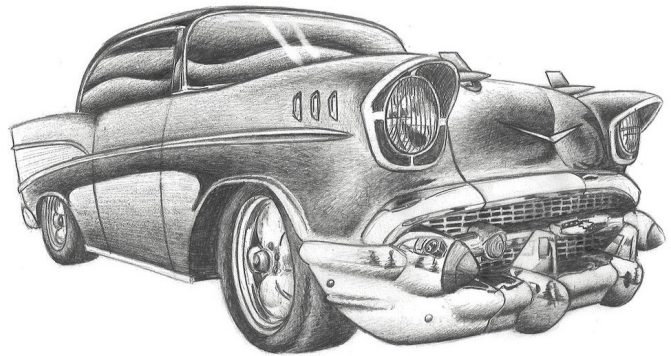

- 2 Tablespoons olive oil
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 2 ribs celery, chopped
- 2 large cloves garlic, crushed
- 1 bay leaf
- 1 medium zucchini, diced
- Salt and freshly ground pepper
- 1 can white cannellini beans
- 1 can garbanzo beans
- 8 cups chicken stock (two 1-quart containers)
- 1 cup mini penne or other small pasta
- 1/2 pound green beans, trimmed and cut into 1-inch pieces
- 10 ounces spinach, well washed, dried on paper towels, stems removed and coarsely chopped
- 1/2 cup grated parmesan or romano cheese
- 12-16 leaves fresh basil, torn or shredded, or 1/4 cup chopped fresh flat leaf parsley

Heat a large pot over medium-high heat. Add oil. Once oil is hot, add onions, celery, garlic, bay leaf and zucchini to the pot and season with salt and pepper to taste. Saute for 5 minutes, stirring frequently. Add white beans, garbanzo beans and broth. Cover and bring to a boil. Add pasta and green beans and cook 8 minutes, or until pasta is just tender. Stir in spinach to wilt, about 1 minute. Stir in grated cheese and ladle soup into bowls. Top with basil or chopped parsley.

Hello fellow Tri-Fivers. It just occurred to us that everyone who plans to register for Big Bear Fun Run 2016 in August needs to send a Self-Addressed Stamped envelope to the Big Bear Lake Antique Car Club to obtain the registration form. The BBLACC usually sends out the registration forms in February. The most important part is to complete the registration form and send it back with the entry fee as soon as you receive it.
