2024 A Year To Remember

Brea Holiday Car Show 2024

Submitted by Wayne Hartwig

We received a flyer for the Annual Brea Holiday Car Show in Downtown Brea on December 8th and since it was the only event anywhere on the calendar for the month of December, we decided to give it a try. The show was advertised as a salute to Classic Cars, Street Rods, Muscle Cars, Trucks, Exotics, Sport Cars and Antiques. This show was produced by the Flying Deuces Car Club and the Brea Downtown Owners Association benefiting the California Highway Patrol's CHIP's for Kids toy drive. This has been a very successful car show and has plenty of entertainment including movie theatres, music, vendors, unique shops, holiday decorations, great food and Santa Claus. Ralph's, Home goods, World Market and Baskin Robbins were only a few steps away from the show area.

There was no online registration for this show. To register, we had to mail the completed registration form with a check and a photo of the car to the event organizer. The entry fee was $45 and a new unwrapped toy for the toy drive. Registration had to be received by November 15 and included an event tee-shirt. We received the dash placard and show information in the mail prior to the show. The event was advertised as being limited to 250 entries, but the show was so popular, they expanded it to around 350 entries.

The show would go on rain or shine, but the weather forecast looked as though it would be a beautiful day. We left home at 6:00 am to make the 108 mile drive to Brea. We arrived at 7:20 and made our way through a parking lot and through a parking garage to the entry point for the show. Show move-in was to open at 7:30, however, we were still amongst the last few cars to arrive. The show area was only four blocks long and entries were parked pretty close together in order to accommodate all of them. We had to wait a few minutes with a few other cars while officials were diligently working to get them all parked. We were eventually parked on Walnut and had to negotiate the narrow path through the vendor area to get there. We were angle parked, which was really good for showing the car. We later discovered the event organizers assigned special parking and VIP parking on Birch Street for selected entries based on the photos. We were not one of them. Apparently they weren't impressed with the photos of our convertible.

My Navy friend John Thompson and his girl friend Christine live not too far from Brea, and they joined us in the afternoon until the end of the show. John and I spent four years in the Navy together from boot camp to Storekeeper school, survival training at Camp Pendleton, Da Nang Vietnam and Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. We've been good friends ever since. It was a really nice visit.

There was a raffle hosted by the Lions Club of Brea, but we were disappointed with it as tickets were $5 each and there was only three items and a dozen bottles of booze. We would have thought after all these years, the raffle would have been much better. We opted not to buy tickets.

There was at least a dozen places to eat on Birch Street and we decided to eat at Bruxie Fried Chicken where we had chicken strips and mac & cheese. We then made a couple loops to see all the entries and all the vendors. After that, we visited Ralph's for cookies, then Home Goods and World Market for a few more goodies before returning back to the show area.

Judges from the Flying Deuces were walking around looking at each entry. There were no specific categories, they just picked vehicles they liked. Awards were announced at 3:30 pm, and we were told there were 35 awards. Interestingly, all 35 awards were labeled as "Best of Show." I've never seen that before. They announced winners in numerical order of their registration number. We were 233 and we were awarded one of those "Best of Show" plaques.

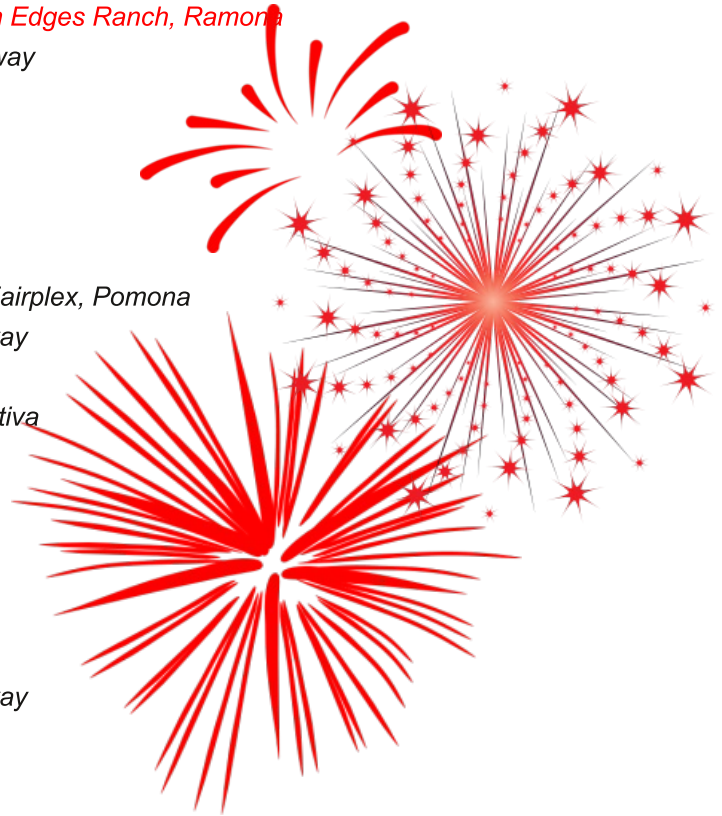

We have been to a lot of shows over the last 3½ years, and this was one of the nicest venues with some of the nicest cars we've seen. It's a fun event with plenty to see & do. We are likely to do it again next year. Come join us, fun guaranteed!

Blast From The Past

Can you remember what this event was we traveled to?
What year it was?
Who is this T5Revolutionary who during this trip was always putting on his orange jumpsuit to work on someones classic.

This is T5R members Sam and Donna Rindskopf at our Nifty at Fifty CCI Western National Convention. Pechanga Casino in Temecula in October 2007. We celebrated 50 years of the '57 Chevy.

If you have a Blast from the Past photo we would love to see it. With a car would be a bonus but not necessary.
