34th Annual Fords & Friends Car Show

Article Submitted by Wayne Hartwig

On June 10, Pick-Ups Limited hosted their 34th Annual Fords and Friends Car Show, but it was not at Grape Day Park in Escondido this year. Instead, it happened at El Monte County Park in Lakeside. This location worked well, as there was plenty of parking, restrooms and shade trees, not that we needed them this time. The weather was overcast and cool upon arrival and never did get completely sunny, but it was quite good for a car show. As always, this show was open to all years, makes and models of cars as well as classic motorcycles. Cars were staged in the parking lot on the pavement. No live entertainment this year, only DJ music. There was a large amount of raffle prizes and a 50/50 raffle as well. No Food trucks were onsite this year either. Instead, two meal tickets were provided for lunch of hot dogs, hamburgers, potato salad, macaroni salad and chips. All proceeds from this show will benefit Meals on Wheels, Armed Services YMCA, the Gary Sinise Foundation and other local charities.

After getting parked and doing a little car detailing, we all wandered out in different directions, some going for breakfast while others headed off to look at cars and/or buy raffle and 50/50 tickets in hopes of winning a few cool prizes. It was a nice day to see a bunch of really nice cars, win a few nice raffle items, and to sit around visiting with our fellow Tri-Fivers. Awards officials came around picking their favorites for the different awards. Dana Stevens' Nomad was chosen for "Best Chevrolet" and our convertible received a sponsors award. But the big winner was Don Perkins, receiving the award for "Best of Show" with his Star Chief convertible. Congratulations Don!

It was nice show at a new location. There were a few things that could have been done better, but overall, a nice show at a nice location. It's always nice to see so many of our Tri-Five family members come out for a very enjoyable day at a car show. Maybe we'll see you there next year!

Thank you to Wayne, Dana and Ava for sharing Fords & Friends pics.

52nd Annual Murrieta Father's Day Car Show

Submitted by Wayne Hartwig

We all know Father's Day comes on Sunday every year and there are always a number of car shows every year on Father's day. The City of Murrieta Father's Day Car Show has been around for 52 years and was one of those Sunday shows. The Murrieta Father's Day Car Show is now held on the Saturday before Father's Day at California Oaks

Sports Park and goes from 2 pm to 8 pm. This show is a great way to celebrate all fathers and their families & friends and still celebrate in other ways on Sunday.

There were four T5R classics attending this event, Sam & Donna Rindskopf, Tom & Nancy Geiman, Dana Stevens, and Linda & me. Since this was our first time at this show, we hooked up with the Drifter Car Club in the alley by Target at 11:45 and followed their lead as they knew the system. No cars were allowed to enter the park until 1 pm. Around 12:15, about 30 cars cruised from the alley to the street near the entrance and waited in a lane that was posted no parking for anyone except classics going to the show. The line of cars didn't move into the show area until almost 1:15, but we all eventually made our way to the registration booth where we were provided with our goody bags, tee-shirts and window placards. From there, we were directed to our spaces for the show which were right up front by the food vendors and restroom facilities. It was also a great spot to display our classics.

The show was open to all pre-1980 vehicles and Specialty vehicles, and there were a lot of really nice cars. The weather was sunny and a bit on the warm side with temperatures in the low 80's, but there was a nice breeze part of the time. We cleaned up the cars, put up shade and went to get food before sitting around the cars a good part of the afternoon. A live band played part of the time and DJ music was playing the rest of the time.

At 3 pm, the judges started making their way around to evaluate each car and record points on an orange score sheet in several categories for each entry. There would be 40 awards for “Dad Picks” and specialty awards for Best Special Interest, Best Modern Classic, Mayor’s Choice, Police Chief’s Choice, Fire Chief’s Choice, and Gil Losi’s Best In Show Tribute Award.

About a half hour before announcement of the awards, an official lady came by looking for me and said our convertible was being considered for an award and not to leave early. She also said she would be back to see us in a few minutes. She never came back, so I thought perhaps another entrant was being chosen. A few minutes before 7 pm, we made our way to the stage where the winners were to be presented with their awards. The awards were announced promptly at 7 pm. The Dad’s 40 were first to be announced and the Rindskopf’s won one of those. Congratulations to Sam & Donna! After the Dad’s 40, came the specialty awards. They called my name and asked me to drive the convertible up in front of the stage to receive the “Gil Losi Best In Show Tribute Award.” Sam helped clear the way for me and as I drove up in front of the stage, a flurry of photos by numerous people were taken. As I was presented with the award, they told me the convertible would be on the tee-shirt for next year’s show. I was not expecting any of this and it took me a minute or two for it all to sink in. It was quite a fun experience, and I guess we’ll need to attend next year’s show. Tee-shirts anyone?

20th Annual Run to the Hills, Pine Valley

The 20th Annual Run to the Hills Car Show was on the calendar for June 24th in Pine Valley. Four of our Tri-Fivers attended this show last year and you may recall all four came home with a trophy, Rich Correia with "Best of Show."

This year, there were seven Tri-Fivers in attendance. Some of us met at the Albertson's in Alpine. Unfortunately, Don Perkins had an issue with his '55 Pro-street Nomad as we were leaving Albertson's. Rod took Don home to get his truck & trailer and they made quick work of getting the Nomad home. Don then picked one of his several other choices, the '55 Pontiac Convertible, and they both made it to the show in pretty quick fashion, although they were parked on the complete opposite end of the street.

It appeared the show was well attended, making for a really nice show. It was a sunny day, a bit warm with a bit of a breeze making it quite comfortable in the shade. There was the usual raffle, silent auction and live band. Rich Correia's black & white '56 Nomad was one of three featured cars on this year's tee-shirts and there were three silent auction framed photos with them on it too. All proceeds from the show will benefit the Mountain Empire Men's Club Scholarship Fund and various Youth Programs.

We went to Majors Restaurant for breakfast in previous years, but sadly Major's is now closed. We had a few other food options with everyone going separate ways. One nice new addition was a couple golf cars to ferry people to and from the far end of the show.

One by one, judges came around making their selections for trophy winners. The first one was Tom & Nancy's blue flamed '55 Belair. Then I heard Dana Steven's '56 Nomad had been chosen. A little later someone picked Don Perkins '55 Pontiac convertible and Rich Correia's '56 Nomad. Congratulations to all four of the winners.

Trophies were to be presented at 1:30, and you may recall, last year trophies didn't happen until 3 pm. People were getting tired of the wait and many left early. This year, the awards were late again, about a half hour. People remembered last year and were getting a bit ticked off again and quite a few were bailing out early again.

This is a nice show with a lot of nice things going on, but doing awards on time is something that needs some work. Most shows are a few minutes late with awards, but this one is way too late and very frustrating for the participants. I wonder if they even realize how important it is to do things on time and how unhappy people are when they don't.

15th Annual Cherry Festival Car & Bike Show

Submitted by Wayne Hartwig

We've been looking to attend car shows outside the San Diego area so we can see people, cars and events we haven't seen before. Recently we went to the Motte Museum in Menifee and the Benedict Castle car show in Riverside. While at these shows we received flyers for other car shows in Temecula, Menifee, Riverside and surrounding areas. One flyer was for the 15th Annual Cherry Festival at Stewart Park in Beaumont on May 27th. Since Linda lived and worked in that area, we decided to make the drive north to attend this show. We also invited Tom & Nancy Geiman to go with us and they joined us.

This is a family friendly show and goes on rain or shine. All vehicles, old or new, foreign or domestic, race cars of any kind, low riders, off road, military, under construction, boats, and all bikes are welcome. Proceeds go to Carol's Kitchen, a local charity that feeds hungry people in the area. Every dollar donated pays for one meal.

We met at the flagpole in Temecula at 7:30 and cruised up to Beaumont, arriving at 9:00 am. It was a bit chilly when we arrived, but clouds eventually gave way to warmer temperatures and some sunshine, making for a very nice day. As we pulled into the show area, we saw Stewart Park was a very nice place for a car show with green grass and some trees on the west side. There were 165 entrants already in place. Since we did not pre-register, we had to stop and take care of that detail before being directed to our parking spaces. We were the last two cars parked on the end of a row, giving us a great location for the event. The show is open to the public and it wasn't long before our cars were surrounded by spectators. We cleaned up the cars and set up our chairs and umbrellas before heading out to buy raffle tickets and look at the cars. Lunch and sitting around the cars took up most of the rest of the show. Interestingly, Tom Hamilton, a guy Linda has known for many years and one who worked for me years ago was there with his recent purchase of an orange '55 Chevy 210 project car. Sometimes it's a small world.

There was a DJ playing music, food trucks, vendors and a raffle, along with a 50/50 drawing. Awards were to be announced at 2:00 pm, however the judges were having difficulty in selecting the winners, as there were so many worthy vehicles to choose from. At 2:30, raffle tickets were drawn. The 50/50 raffle had $480 to the winner and made one lucky guy really happy. The awards were last on the agenda and one by one, winners came up to claim their trophy with a large spark plug on top. Our friend Tom won the "Best Under Construction" award. The "Best of Show" trophy was the last to be announced and it went to our black & silver '55 Chevrolet Belair convertible! One more trophy for the shelf!

This was a really nice show at a very nice location with lots of eye candy and really nice people. We may do it again next year. Want to join us?

Cruisin' Grand Report

by Joe Keller

Last Friday several Tri-Five Revolutioners went to the opening night of Crusin' Grand Car Show. Dana, Donna and I met in front of the famous Geiman Motors at 3pm. As we pulled up Dana was already there. She gave me the "Head em out" signal" out the rear window. We took off to Broadway Ave. As we drove through the alley behind Filippi to Broadway there were many classic's already staging for the show.

Dana and I found a business driveway that is under construction that we could park in till the street was closed. About that time my phone rang, it was Bob Brown asking why we were not at the meeting place. I did not understand he was joining us to drive in. He quickly joined us at the parking space.

More classic's were driving up. Several started double parking in the street blocking traffic. The truck with traffic cones and two police officers pulled up. The officers started telling the drivers that next Friday they will be ticketed for blocking traffic before 4pm. The cones were\ set and the street was closed around 3:45pm.

As soon as the street was closed we were able to stage on the street. Within seconds the street was full of classic cars and trucks. We setup our chairs on the shady side of the street. Shortly, Stewart Miller (Dana's brother) joined us. He had brought his 35 Ford cabriolet project car parked on Grand Ave. We decided to start walking around looking at the cool cars and trucks. The show area was packed with cool vehicles and people having a good evening. Donna and I are looking forward to attending more times this summer with other members of the Tri-Five Revolution.

My favorite vehicle seen tonight was this chevy truck.

56th Annual Fallbrook Vintage Car Show

Submitted by Wayne Hartwig

The 56th Annual Fallbrook Vintage Car Show took place on May 28th at Bates Nut Farm in Valley Center. Registration was open to all cars, trucks and motorcycles 1998 and older. This year's featured car was British cars and there were about twenty of them parked in rows at the top of the grassy area along with some early 1900's vehicles. More than 400 participants paid the $35 entry fee to pre-register for the show and no day of show entries were accepted. There were dash plaques, awards, posters, show merchandise, swap vendors, food vendors, and music by High Energy Sound and Light Productions playing some of our favorite tunes.

Like so many days this year, it started out with drizzly overcast skies. The closer to Bates we got, the wetter the roads became, and we even had to use the wipers. We met Mike & Pat Harvey and Tom & Nancy Geiman at the Chevron station in Valley Center made our way into the show. As we drove in, we were directed to a nice location by a large tree. The grass was as green as I've ever seen, though it was a bit soggy in places. We cleaned up the cars, opened the hoods, and placed a fire extinguisher near the left front wheel, which was required to be judged for an award. But then the drizzle started again and continued on and off throughout the morning.

We decided to get some breakfast. There were several food vendors to choose from but none of them were serving breakfast. We passed on breakfast and went to the store to get some goodies instead. We then went off to visit with some of the vendors and to see some of the entries. We couldn't help but noticed the long line of spectator cars lined up on the road waiting to get into the parking lot. It was the most spectators I can remember seeing at this show.

The drizzle continued and we were getting a bit damp. We set up Tom's popup by the tree to sit under in an effort to stay dry. At lunch time, we went back to the food vendors. The lines were very long except for Dang Pizza using a firetruck with a pizza oven in the back to make pizzas. We got three pepperoni pizzas for our group to share, and they were actually quite good.

After lunch, the drizzle had stopped, and the skies were slowly starting to let some sunshine in. We sat around the cars until it was time for the awards. Miss Teen Fallbrook was there to help present the awards along with a box of avocados. Last year at this show, the convertible won the "Best Engine Bay" award. I was surprised they picked it again this year for the same award.

It was a nice show despite the drizzle, and it was awesome to see Mike & Pat come out to play with the Tom & Nancy and Linda & me. Looking forward to next year.

Blast From the Past

Gladiators Wayne Fabert and Karl Larson engage in combat at the Latin banquet.

Roman 'Colts' Race Chariots

"Quid sevir dabitur?" — what am I bid for this slave? This call opened Crawford's annual Latin Banquet held in the cafeteria on May 3. Following the sale of the slaves, who were first year Latin students, 114 students bedecked in authentic Roman attire paraded around the school and into the cafeteria.

The invocation, said by Richard Miner, began the evening's festivities. As Caesar, portrayed by Eugene Hikel, clasped his hands the slaves brought forth the appetizers.

Andre Dussoix ventured in the entertainment for the evening with his flute solo. A karate exhibition was then given by Dennis Stout.

Caesar's call for dinner was answered by the slaves carrying plates of chicken or fish as the main course. The Roman bread with honey and the grape juice added the authentic touch. During the meal the guests were entertained by wrestlers Joe Keeyes and Joe Tafaya, who were spared in the mercy of a "thumbs up" sign.

While enjoying a dessert of polished apples and sweetmeats the "Romans" watched the magic tricks of Warren Karzan. Gladiators Wayne Fabert and Karl Larson contended in a fight to the finish. Next a pantomime, "Arachne," was presented.

A delightful Roman farce, "Rinse the Blood Off My Face," was presented by Jeff Grossman, Jeff Graham, Carolyn Reusch, Judy Ceaglio, Craig Sykes, and Dave Doty.

"Curious Savage" Heralded Success

By Martin Cameron

"The Curious Savage" was declared a success by the majority of those who saw the three-act play presented April 25 and 26. Their four performances gave both senior casts a chance to show Crawford what less than three months of hard stage work can do. Nods of approval came from both the critical part of the theatre-goers and those who came to be entertained.

The leads: Excellent acting from Karen Greer and Rolly Fanton. Although each had a different interpretation of the role of Mrs. Savage, they scored high with their audiences not only during the play, but also in applause when they took their bows to certain calls.

The climax of the evening came with the chariot races on the girls' gym field.

Mrs. Paddy informs Mrs. Savage of her dislikes.

The Supporting casts: Almost equaling the leads in popularity for their fine acting were James Brown and Sheldon Sarfan, who co-played the part of Titus; Deena Dossey and Jan Worrell, as Angel; and Mike Day and Terry Hudson, as Hannibal.

Well received by Crawford's play-goers were Louise Neil and Mary Ann Roskos, as Lily Belle; Sue Freeland and Patty Foor, as Florine; Sharon Jarvis and Jacki Chillo, as Mrs. Paddy; Janice Hiles and Lonni Kane, as Miss Willie; and Yvonne Morse and Carolyn Reusch, as Dr. Emmett.

More than justifying their being in all performances were Dan Clapp, as Jeff; and Eugene Hikel, as Samuel.

In the wings: Credit must go to Mr. Van Buskirk, the director; Karen Greer, the student director; Ron Litz, the technical director; Russ Murphy, the stage manager; James Brown and Jeff Aldrich, tape and sound effects; and all the others, too numerous to mention, who did their share in making the 1963 Senior Play a great success.

How Now Brown Cow?

For all the Crawford mathematicians with milk maid's hands (that's what delayed this column), the answer to the last Math puzzle is "the brown cow." How now? That question was answered first by John Gaines. His solution is given below, with some of the simplification steps omitted because of lack of space. This solution will settle a lot of arguments around the campus (can't have people crying over miscalculated milk!).

For those who are tired of milking cows, the Math Club has provided a simple (?) multiplication problem for this issue's Puzzler. It looks like this:

HEB

CDF

YOU fill in the numbers (like letters represent like numbers).

IBGEA

John's solution:
Let X equal amt. of milk 1 black cow gives Let Y equal amount of milk 1 brown cow gives then 4X plus 3Y equals 5 and 3X plus 5Y equals 4.
Solving the latter equation for X,
X equals (4 - 5Y)/3, substituting into the first equation,
4(4 - 5Y)/3 plus 3Y equals 5, and Y equals .75.

VANC Car Show Fundraiser 2023

Submitted by Wayne Hartwig

The Veterans Administration North County (VANC) held their annual fundraiser on June 3rd with all proceeds going to America's Veterans, Military & Family Members. The show is held each year in the parking lot of VANC in Oceanside and is limited to 110 entries because of the parking lot size. It's a small show, but nevertheless, it is a really nice show and supports our nation's military heroes.

Linda and I went to this show last year and Bob Brown was there, winning the "Best Corvette" trophy with his recently repaired 1959 Corvette. This year, Bob Brown and his friend Fred were there again with their Corvettes. Of course, Linda and I were there with our '55 convertible.

The weather was overcast with a bit of drizzle on the trip there but stayed dry throughout the show. Most of the lot was full when we arrived. The parking guys directed us to the last spot in front of the DJ booth, which turned out to be the best spot for the show.

The show was open to all classic cars & trucks and new rides with modern technology for a mere $25. Things kicked off with the National Anthem at 9:00 am.

A pancake and sausage breakfast was being served and raffle tickets were being sold. There was also a silent auction for two framed patriotic art works. We ate, bought raffle tickets and made our way around the lot to see the cars and visit with friends. Hot dogs and hamburgers were available for lunch. We went for the dogs.

At 1:30, they announced the winners of the raffle prizes and 50/50. We won a free yogurt from the Golden Spoon in Carlsbad. The 50/50 was $280 to the lucky winner. At 2:00 pm, awards were announced. We were tipped off earlier by a lady that we someone was going to be a winner, but she couldn't say who. Then she said congratulations. The judges had picked our convertible for the "Best of Show" award. This show is a great way to support our military families, so come on out to join us next year.
