Over the Hill Gang Streak 46

submitted by Wayne & Linda

Mother's Day is here and with that comes the annual Over the Hill Gang Streak. Happy Mother's Day to everyone! Wednesday is our check-in day at Campland on the Bay. We arrived around 10 am with our diesel truck, hooked up to the trailer and had it in place and set up in about an hour and a half. No issues this year. Yea!

Then it was time to go shopping for a few things we knew we would want for the weekend. We made a trip to Vons and Costco to acquire food items and a dish for the Thursday night potluck sponsored by the Over the Hill Gang. This year we chose the Costco frozen cream puffs as our contribution.

Linda's God Son Richard and his wife Julisa joined us again this year and were fortunate enough to get the space right next to us. They arrived Thursday around noon and we helped them get their trailer setup in their space. Getting a space next to us meant we would now have two picnic tables to use for the entire event, providing us enough room for everyone to sit at a table with us for meals. Meanwhile, the Geiman's arrived in their motorhome about the same time and were setup and ready to play too. Rod & Nancy Hildebrand also came on Thursday to spend the day with all of us.

Since not everyone had their dish for the potluck, we all jumped in the Geiman's big white Buick for another trip to Costco for more dishes of food. The group came back with chocolate layer cake, apple pie and a couple of other yummy dishes. As usual, the potluck had a lot of different homemade dishes as well as dessert dishes. And the cream puffs were heavenly! After we had our fill, we picked up our entrant packet for the event and played a game of Five Crowns. Tom told us he was going kick our @$$$. He did.

Friday arrived with a lot of cloud-covered skies, but no rain. At 8:30 we were greeted with the sounds of DJ Mark Reynolds playing his usual great music. Sadly for us, this will be Mark's last year playing his awesome music for the Streak and every other car event as well, as he is retiring after his last event this month. Mark and his wife have purchased a travel trailer and have made plans to do some traveling starting with a trip to Wyoming this year. We will miss seeing Mark and his wife at our favorite car show events, but at the same time, we are so happy for them to start enjoying their retirement. We will be looking them up next March in Yuma when we go to Midnight at the Oasis.

Friday also brought the bake sale and the early raffle ticket sales. Breakfast was courtesy of Richard and Julisa who brought us breakfast burritos from Harvest Taco Shop. The Keller's came down to join us for the afternoon, and after the early raffle prize drawings, we had a pretty big group for bar-b-cued hamburgers, hot dogs & kielbasa with all the goodies. This year, the weather was really nice for the Friday night street dance with Mark Reynolds. This is one of our favorite parts of the Streak. We were first to start the dance and the last to finish it at 10 pm. It was awesome for Marks's last Streak street dance.

Rain was predicted overnight Friday into Saturday morning, but it didn't happen. The Geiman's, Hildebrand's and Correia's were all there with us from the Tri-5 group. My Navy buddy John Thompson also came with his girlfriend Christine from the LA area to spend the day with us. We don't know if it was the threat of rain or something else, but there was a noticeable lack of show cars and people attending the event.

We started the day by participating in the Poker Walk with the rest of our group. No one in our group won this year, but Julisa came in third with three nines. Weather was starting to look pretty good for the day, but it all changed around 10 am when a rain cell came rolling through and soaked everything for a little over an hour. It didn't stop any of the activities and by lunch time the sun was coming out and was great for the rest of the event. It was time to trade our lunch tickets for roast beef and chicken covered in BBQ sauce, baked beans, potato salad and rolls. The food line was short and we all quickly obtained our food.

After lunch, we were able to sign up for next year's show before the Little Miss Streak & Little Mr. Hot Rod Contest was conducted. Then came sort of a long recognition of sponsors before presenting the awards. No winners in our group.

There were lots of general raffle prizes and grand prizes, but no transmission or wheels. They eliminated the participant's only raffle too. We checked our general raffle ticket numbers and we won four general raffle prizes. Rich and Rod won a few prizes too. At 5 pm, new tickets were drawn for the unclaimed general raffle prizes and then the big-ticket items. No one we know won anything there.

After the raffle, we bar-b-cued again and had dinner with our Tri-5 friends. The live band this year was the Rockhounds, a band we had never heard of, but they were really good! They must have been around for a while because they were clearly not youngsters and they kept us entertained all night long. The ladies of Over the Hill Gang did not dress up in any cute blowup suits this year, but Suzanne Stevens did a couple of one person dances in a flamingo blowup, which was fun to watch. The party ended at 10 pm when it was time to turn out the lights on Streak 46.

Sunday was a very nice sunny day and there were no Streak activities at all. We just relaxed and enjoyed the company of Richard & Julisa, Rod & Nancy, Tom & Nancy and their son Patrick and daughter Sherri. We played a game of Five Crowns and sat down to a feast of Julisa's abondigas soup and ate up the rest of the BBQ food. We did our usual late checkout, which was supposed to be 6 pm. I think it was closer to 7 by the time we pulled our trailer out of the space. This show is always a fun one for us, but it seems to go by way too fast. We did have a lot of fun with our T5R group, but could be even better if more T5R members came down to enjoy the weekend with us. Looking forwards to seeing all of you next year, whether you come to camp or just for the day. Good times guaranteed!

Edgemoor Car Show

from Bob Brown

I have displayed the 57 Bel Air on at least 2 or 3 other occasions at similar hospitals in Encinitas & Vista, and it is always heartening to see patients' eyes light up when they recognize a car from their youth. It also makes you feel good that your car brought a small spark of joy into someone's life that no longer sees a lot of joy in their declining years. Accordingly, I signed up to participate.

The Model A club was a huge supporter of the event. Most of the cars were restored far better than Henry ever built them.

I got there early and had a very nice shady spot. The hospital provided all the free coffee and donuts we could possibly eat!

We had a terrific turnout for the event; I would guess more than 50 cars.

At noon they fed us a very nice buffet lunch, and then it was time to go home.

On Sunday the 19th, I attended the 42nd Annual PLASTIC FANTASTIC all Corvette show on the Embarcadero at Seaport Village. As you can see, it was a very wet day, but I would guess there was more than 200 hardy Corvette owners that showed up for the soggy event.
