Tri-5ers Enjoy Cruisin' Grand

by Ann Goldberg

Thanks to the efforts of Tom and Nancy, the Tri-5 Revolution enjoyed an excellent August evening of prime parking at Cruisin' Grand, bringing seven great Chevy's to the show. With chairs in place we were sittin' on a corner watching all the cars cruise by while enjoying lots of good conversation. No evening with car friends would be complete without some good food, and the Mexican fare at La Tapatia did not disappoint!

Battery Jumper

Below are photos of a system that I purchased to jump my car when my battery is dead. It is an amazing system as it will jump a car 12 times without recharging. I purchased this at the Russo Steele Auction after watching the Auction professionals use this system repeatedly to jump cars going across the auction block. I paid $130.00 for mine at the Auction but I have seen it cheaper on the internet at sites like Amazon. The system will also charge my iPhone 5, my iPad, my digital camera and more. They also sell a system that is a bit bigger and more expensive that will also recharge a laptop. This system also comes with the carrying case, cables, cigarette lighter charger, 110v charger, and accessory cable. I wanted to share this with the group since I think this is an amazing system and really neat technology. The device itself will fit in your pocket, truly amazing that this little package can hold this much energy.

The Kitchen Scoop

on Two Fabulous Desserts

by Ann Goldberg

As I've mentioned before, when I was growing up, dessert was not a daily occurrence but a treat saved special celebrations and large get-togethers. Then pie or cake, topped with ice cream on birthdays, would be shared. When our tri-5's were new, dessert was simple and delicious.

On the road trip Harvey and I recently completed, dessert was, for the most part, only enjoyed as a special treat, disregarding the three days in a row my friend Lois and I shared slices of cheesecake. To our credit, we were curious, as well as gluttonous, sampling cheesecake with caramel topping, a more traditional strawberry topped version, and, the most yummy, Bananas Foster Cheesecake. Delicious, fattening, and, amazingly, out done by two other delectable desserts we encountered along the way: pound cake served with ice cream and fruit, and Banana Split in a Jar.

Pound Cake with Ice Cream and Fruit

My cousin Michael upped the ante on this one cutting thick slices of pound cake, buttering one side before putting on a hot grill pan to toast, flipping the cake, lightly toasting the second side. Then he halved and pitted fresh-from-the-farmers'-market juicy aromatic peaches, grilling the cut side lightly. These he plated with a scoop of maple walnut ice cream. Quick, easy, and real good stuff!

Banana Split in a Jar

From the menu of the Double Eagle in Old Mesilla, New Mexico, this delight comes to the table in a capped quart Mason jar and is comprised of a bottom layer of chocolate sponge cake stopped with large scoops of peanut butter ice cream, a rich salted caramel sauce, sliced bananas, caramelized roasted peanuts and cream. True enjoyment!

MORE PEOPLE NAMED JONES*
OWN CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER CAR!

(Are you keeping up with the Joneses?)

*Of course we haven't actually counted all the Joneses. But it seems a safe guess. Because this year—as they have year after year—more people are buying Chevrolets. And 2 million more people drive Chevrolets than any other car. Maybe you ought to stop by your Chevrolet dealer's and see why this is so....
